PREPARATION FOR TRIAL
BEFORE THE HONORABLE CARMEN E. GARZA

DECORUM AND GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. Be on time for each court session. Trial engagements take precedence over any other business. If you have matters in other courtrooms, make other arrangements in advance for the handling of such matters.
2. Court time may not be used for marking exhibits. This must be done in advance of the court session.
3. Under no circumstances are you to attempt to communicate in any manner with any member of the jury prior to or during trial. Your clients and witnesses should also be so instructed.
4. Do not argue the case or discuss law in your opening statement. Your opening statement should present a concise summary of the ultimate facts to be proved. Do not describe in detail what particular witnesses will say.
5. You may move from the lectern when you question witnesses so long as it is not unduly distracting or uncomfortable for trial participants.
6. If you intend to question a witness about a group of documents, avoid delay by having all the documents with you when you start the examination.
7. Commence your examination or cross-examination without unnecessary preliminary introductions.
8. When you object in the presence of the jury, make your objection short and to the point. "Speaking" objections will not be allowed. Cite the Rule of Evidence or common designation for your objection (e.g., "hearsay"). Do not argue the objection. Do not make substantive motions (e.g., a motion for a mistrial or directed verdict) in the presence of the jury. Such matters may be raised at sidebar or, by request, at the first recess without waiving any rights by such delayed motion.
9. Do not argue with the ruling of the Court in the presence of the jury and refrain from thanking the Court following a ruling.
10. Each party will be responsible for securing the appearance of witnesses the party proposes to call.
11. Clients and witnesses are expected to be on time, and counsel should always have witnesses available to fill a full trial day (i.e., 8:30 AM - 5:00 PM). Counsel who do not have a witness available may be penalized.

12. Those exhibits which are not stipulated to shall be identified in sufficient detail to allow the Court to anticipate significant evidentiary problems.
13. Any exhibits not admitted at the beginning of trial may not be shown to the jury or testified to, regarding the contents of such exhibit, by the witness unless and until they are admitted.
14. Jury instructions shall be submitted to the Court in accordance with the section entitled PREPARATION OF JURY INSTRUCTIONS contained herein, along with Judge Garza's stock jury instructions, are available on Judge Garza's Chambers Page at www.nmcourt.fed.us or by request.
15. In the average case, each counsel will be permitted approximately twenty (20) minutes to voir dire the venire panel. Do not argue the case or cite legal principles in your voir dire.
16. Counsel will not get into possible areas of reversible error without prior Court approval, whether in opening or questioning witnesses. (E.g., Comment on a defendant's silence, invocation of constitutional rights, Rules 404(b), 608 or 609 material, etc.)

PRE-TRIAL TIME TABLE

1. Throughout these instructions, the term "trial" refers to commencement of the trailing docket. Therefore, all dates operate off of the initial jury selection date or date upon which the trailing docket begins. Counsel must seek leave of the Court in the form of a written motion to extend any pretrial deadline.
2. Where a submission deadline falls on a holiday, the deadline becomes the next working day after the holiday.
